LATEST UPDATE

October 2017

- 1. We held our first Civic Reception and were delighted to welcome over 60 community representatives. We plan to do this every year from now.
- 2. Pentyrch Post Office: received after our October meeting was news that our AM and MP have met with Post Office representatives. The Post Office is working to re-open the service in Pentyrch as soon as it can.
- 3. Cllr Chris Priday is now PCC's representative on the Pentyrch Village Hall Committee.
- 4. We are still waiting for information on a meeting with residents, the Pentyrch Sports Association, the developer and Cllr Hill-John to discuss the telecoms mast on the PSA site.
- 5. We supported residents' concerns about dog waste, particularly around schools; over-hanging trees; footpaths and flytipping.
- 6. PCC objected to an inadequate Travel Plan for a development that will add to traffic on the A4119, Llantrisant Road
- 7. The next Community Link will be the 100th edition! We'd love to hear from you with any articles or suggestions by November 3.
